It is understood that any employee may present an oral complaint at any time to their immediate supervisor without resorting to the grievance procedure below. Except where otherwise provided, it is understood that an employee has no grievance unless and until the matter is first discussed with the employee's immediate supervisor or in the case of a job posting dispute, with the Supervisor concerned. If upon completion of said discussion the matter is not resolved, it may be grieved and disposed of in the following manner:

Such grievance must be submitted within ten (10) WORKING days for full-time employees; or ten (10) CALENDAR days for part-time employees, of the occurrence of the event which gave rise to the grievance and must be signed by the employee claiming to be aggrieved and the committee member, at which time the matter will be discussed. The employee shall be accompanied by their committee member. The supervisor shall submit their answer in writing within two (2) WORKING days for full-time employees; or two (2) CALENDAR days for part-time employees, of the filing of the grievance at Step #1.

STEP #2

Failing settlement of the grievance at Step #1, or failure of the supervisor to submit their reply within the prescribed period, the employee and the committee member shall present their grievance in writing to the Director, Library Services or non-union designate of the Employer within five (5) WORKING days for full-time employees; or five (5) CALENDAR days for part-time employees after the reply is received, or should have been received, in Step #1. The griever shall be represented by the grievance committee and the griever shall be present. Either party may have outside representation up to two persons provided twenty-four (24) hours notice of such representation is given in advance to the other party. The Union will reserve the right to add the names of other grievors as they become known until the grievance has been resolved.

The grievance shall be in writing and shall include the circumstances giving rise to the grievance and the remedy sought and should include the provisions of the agreement generally to be relied upon.

9.01 At the mutual agreement of both parties the following mediation process will be used in an attempt to resolve any grievance that has proceeded through the steps of the Grievance Procedure outlined in Articles 8 and 10 and that has been referred by either party to Arbitration. The intent of this process is to provide a neutral 3rd party who will attempt to resolve the grievance in a timely manner, to the satisfaction of both parties.

- (a) The parties will agree on a list of ten (10) persons who will be asked to act, on a rotating basis, as a grievance mediator. The parties shall equally share the fees of the mediator.
- (b) The mediation session will be attended by maximum of five (5) representatives from the Union and the grievor(s) and such representation as may be chosen to represent Management. The persons attending should be familiar with the content of the grievance and have authority to enact a resolution.
- (c) Once the parties have agreed in writing to mediate a grievance the session shall commence within sixty (60) calendar days. If the appointed mediator is unavailable within 60 days of the appointment then the appointment will be given to the next mediator in turn. In addition, should any of the applicable parties be unavailable to attend within this sixty (60) day period, then they shall appoint a substitute to attend.

- (d) Provided the parties agree, there shall be no limit to the number of grievances submitted for a single session.
- (e) Any concessions, discussions or offers to settle the grievance, which occur during the mediation process, will not prejudice either party at arbitration should the matter not be resolved nor shall it be raised, discussed or relied upon at Arbitration.
- (f) The mediation session will normally be conducted at the workplace. This may be altered at the consent of both parties. Authorized attendance at the mediation session shall be without loss of regular pay or benefits.
- (g) Any resolution for grievances submitted to this mediation process shall be conditional on the agreement of both parties. Any matter unresolved at the end of the mediation session may continue to arbitration or be withdrawn.
- (h) The Mediator shall not act as the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

- 10.01 Both parties to this agreement agree that any difference or grievance which has been properly carried through all the applicable steps of the grievance procedure outlined in Article 8 and which has not been settled will, at the written request of either of the parties, be referred to a board of arbitration, within thirty (30) WORKING days for full-time employees; or thirty (30) CALENDAR days for part-time employees, of the Director, Library Services, or non-union designate's answer at the Step #2 Level of the Grievance Procedure.
- 10.02 (a) The board of arbitration will be composed of one person appointed by the Employer, one person appointed by the Union, and a third person to act as chairman chosen by the other two members of the board.
- (b) Either party to this Collective Agreement may invoke the provisions of Section 46 of The Ontario Labour Relations Act and thereby request that a matter for arbitration be referred to a Single Arbitrator.
- 10.03 Within five (5) WORKING days for full-time employees; or seven (7) CALENDAR days for part-time employees, of the request by either party for a board, the other party shall notify the party requesting arbitration in writing of the name of its nominee. Should the other party fail to so notify within the time limits prescribed, the party giving notice of intent to process the grievance to arbitration may apply to the Labour Management Arbitration Commission requesting appointment of a nominee.

- 10.04 Should the person chosen by the Employer to act on the board and the person chosen by the Union fail to agree to a third person within ten (10) WORKING days for full-time employees or ten (10) CALENDAR days for part-time employees, of the notification mentioned in 10.03 above, the Minister of Labour of the Province of Ontario will be asked to nominate a person to act as chairman.
- 10.05 For the purposes of this agreement, the decision of a majority is the decision of the arbitration board, but if there is no majority the decision of the chairman governs. The decision of the board shall be final and binding.
- 10.06 The board of arbitration shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this agreement, or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions, nor to give decisions inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this agreement.
- 10.07 Each of the parties to this agreement will pay the expenses of the nominee appointed by it, and the parties will jointly pay the expenses, if any, of the chairman.

Such special grievance may be settled by mutual agreement of the parties, in writing, at any time by:
- (a) confirming the management's action in dismissing or suspending the employee; or
 - (b) reinstating the employee with full compensation for time lost; or

The employee's reply to such complaint, accusation or expression of dissatisfaction shall become part of their personnel file.

The exception to this article will be any discipline imposed due to harassment or incidents of violence in the workplace.
- 11.05 Nothing shall be placed in an employee's personnel file concerning poor performance without the employee's knowledge.

If at any step in the grievance or arbitration procedure the grievance has not been processed by the grievor or their agent in accordance with the time limits prescribed, the grievance shall be deemed to have been settled and/or withdrawn. If at any step of the grievance procedure the grievance has not been processed by the Employer within the prescribed time limits, the grievance may be advanced to the next step by the grievor within the time limits as prescribed. FULL or 100% salary benefits for an employee will be limited in any calendar year to the number of weeks entitlement indicated by length of service and grade level. Subsequent absences will receive 75% benefits for their duration in accordance with the policy.

Benefits will commence from the first day of disability for the first three (3) incidents of short term absence exceeding three (3) working days in a calendar year.

Benefits will commence from the fourth (4th) day of disability for the fourth (4th) and subsequent incidents of short term absence exceeding three (3) working days in a calendar year.

Benefits once established will not be affected by any salary adjustment occurring during the absence until a new claim has been established in accordance with the policy.

Employees who have completed three (3) months of service will be allowed up to six (6) paid non-cumulative days per calendar year to provide income for illness or disability of three (3) working days or less.

Entitlement will be based on a ratio of one-half (%) day per calendar month of active employment in the calendar year, back to the original date of service. In this regard, an employee must work at least half of the working days in their first calendar month of employment in order to receive a credit for that month.

Short Term Benefits will only be paid after the employee supplies the Employer with satisfactory medical evidence of disability if requested to do so. In certain cases the Employer may request satisfactory medical evidence prior to payment of benefits for any of the six (6) non-cumulative days for illness or disability.

25.04 Sick Leave Credit Programme

Any full-time member of CUPE 1989 hired on or prior to October 1, 1984 is covered by a Sick Leave Credit Disability Income Plan as described in Articles 25.04 and not the STD Program. The Sick Leave Credit Plan operates as follows:

Sick Leave Credit Entitlement

Eighteen (18) days sick leave per year shall be earned by an employee at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) days for every month an employee is employed.

Accumulation of Sick Leave Credits

The unused portion of an employee's sick leave shall accrue for their future benefits.

Deductions from Sick Leave

A deduction shall be made from accumulated sick leave of all normal working days (exclusive of holidays) absent for sick leave. Absence on account of illness for less than half a day shall not be deducted. Absence for half a day or more and less than a full day, shall be deducted as one-half (%) the number of hours in the scheduled working day.

Sick Leave Credits during Leave of Absence and Lay-Off

When an employee is given paid leave of absence for any reason they shall receive sick leave credit for the period of such absence on their return to work and shall be entitled to use such sick leave credits upon their return. When an employee is laid off on account of lack of work they shall not receive sick leave credits for the period of such absence but shall retain their cumulative credit, if any, existing at the time of such lay-off.

Exhaustion of Sick Leave Credits

No employee shall have their services terminated by virtue of having exhausted their sick leave credits, subject to Article 13.04.

Sick Leave Records

Immediately after the close of each calendar year the Employer shall advise each employee in writing of the amount of sick leave accrued to their credit.

The Employer shall maintain its present practice regarding payment of one half (%) of the unused sick leave credits in the case of legitimate retirement. Unused credits are to be paid out in the following manner:

- a) one half (%) of the unused credits up to a maximum of three (3) months salary in the case of early retirement at age 55.
- b) one half (%) of the unused credits up to a maximum of six (6) months salary in the case of retirement at age 65 or beyond.
- c) pro-rating of pay-outs for unused sick leave credits for persons who retire between the ages of 55 and 65, said pro-rating to be based on the three-month (3) and six-month (6) maximum.

25.05 Following six months of continuous, active full-time service and in the case of an employee being eligible for the provisions of either Article 25.03 or Article 25.04 after an absence of one hundred and twenty (120) working days due to disability, the employee may apply for Long Term Disability (LTD). In order to qualify for LTD coverage, the employee must apply within one year from the date of disability and in accordance with the Master Policy.

25.06 WSIB Earnings

- a) Full Time Employees

In the event a full-time employee is unable to work because of a work related accident and where the Employer is not challenging the validity of a claim, the Employer will continue the employee's regular WSIB wages. In the event the claim is denied, the employee may choose repayment through the STD plan if sufficient medical evidence is provided to satisfy the STD plan requirements, or a deduction from the employee's vacation bank or a mutually agreeable re-payment plan.

b) Part Time Employees

In the event a part-time employee is unable to work because of a work related accident, the employee will be paid directly by the WSIB upon approval of their claim.

ARTICLE 26 – SICK LEAVE (PART-TIME EMPLOYEES)

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 1989

RE: LIEU TIME FOR FULL TIME PERMANENT EMPLOYEES

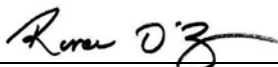

In accordance with the current Articles in the Collective Agreement, lieu time may be banked up to eighty (80) hours. Effective in the calendar year following the expansion of Sunday hours at nine (9) or more branch locations, the lieu time bank will increase to ninety seven and a half (97 ½) which is a combination of the seventy-three and a half (73 ½) and twenty-four (24) hours of lieu time as it relates to statutory holidays.

Employees who cannot reduce their bank to zero (0) hours by December 31 must have a plan, with specific dates, to use their banked hours approved by their designated member of the Library Leadership team no later than December 1, of that year to be used by March 31 of the following year. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld. If an employee does not use the lieu time by March 31, the lieu will be paid out during the next possible pay cycle.
